

ARTICLE I

DEFINITION OF A COMMUNITY COLLEGE

1100. ORGANIZATION BY GRADES. “Community College” means freshman and sophomore years in a two-year college. The title, “Los Angeles Community College District,” will be the official name of the “Los Angeles two-year colleges”.

EC 66010.4 (a)(1)

Adopted 12-02-69

Amended 10-22-97

1101. HIGHER EDUCATION. Community colleges are part of higher education by definition and function and by their being included in the California Post-secondary Education Commission.

EC 66010, 66900, 66901

Adopted 12-02-69

Amended 02-04-76

1102. COMMUNITY COLLEGE. Community colleges reflect in their curricula and in their educational programs the needs of the communities in which they are located.

EC 78201, 78202

Adopted 12-02-69

Amended 02-04-76

1103. GOVERNANCE. The governance of the community college is inspired by a belief in democratic procedures, conducted with a spirit of collegiality, and committed to decision making, which involves those most affected, including community, student and staff participation.

Adopted 02-25-81