Eleby; will have list of all resolutions at the legislative committee meeting.
  - C. Advisor's Reports:

Would like to thank everyone for their support at the Deans awards, and especially would like to thank Ms. Alvynette for the exemplary job she did. Board members need to attend their shared government meetings and report back what took place. We are entering a serious time after spring break, no committee should meet without him knowing about the meeting, let Ms. Alvynette know if you are thinking about events so she can see if the space is available, be proactive when you are making motions, attend the legislative committee meeting so you can be informed of the resolutions that will be voted on at GA. He will be going to San Diego for a conference right after this meeting and will return Monday. Plan on having workshops for the board in May. After the break he will make time for members that would like to meet with him. The remodel should be complete towards the end of June. Also everyone should respect the office by watching their language and behavior.
- VI. Discussion Items (Each Discussion Item is limited to a total of fifteen (15) minutes)
  - A. Campus Safety:

Synodinos; after spring break the board should go around campus and make sure that the emergency boxes are working, also concerned with the lack of signs telling people that they should not bicycle or skate on campus.
